Webinar on Youth Entrepreneurship: The Mindset, organised by the department of Pharmaceutical Sciences gave a good understanding on Youth Entrepreneurship: The Mindset. The session made students understand that the entrepreneurs are constantly seeking new solutions to the problem they encounter, and motivated young people to utilize a variety of problem-solving skills to approach problems with creativity and innovation. The five characteristics to cultivate entrepreneur mindset are positive mental attitude, creative mindset, persuasive communication ability, intrinsic motivation and drive, tenacity and an ability to learn from failure. The session gave good understanding about skills that any entrepreneur need to adopt which include a vision (know exactly what you want), ask questions (question yourself, your plans, your strategy, your business plans and your decisions etc.), passion and energy, work ethics, create an opportunity, communication, sales. The struggles and growth includes learning new skills, the new challenges, thinks about quitting, remembers their why, keeps working and finally finds success. Finally, the sessions came to end by explaining the queries of the students and have acquired knowledge and they are satisfied with the session.
